Fan-Made Hot Wheels CGI Commercial Concept / FYP
Greenwich University

- Created a cinematic fan-made CGI commercial inspired by Hot Wheels, featuring a McLaren chase sequence across snow, city, and desert environments. Worked on 3D scene setup, vehicle animation, cinematic camera shots, lighting, rendering, compositing, motion graphics, and final video editing.
- Developed the project using Unreal Engine, Maya, Blender, Substance Painter, After Effects, Premiere Pro, and Illustrator. The final concept combined action, storytelling, and childhood imagination, ending with the reveal that the chase was part of a young girl's dream.
- Focused on creating a visually engaging dream sequence by combining realistic environments with toy-inspired storytelling. Improved the final look through cinematic transitions, color grading, glow effects, sound placement, and polished post-production. Gained practical experience in managing a complete CGI production workflow from concept development to final export.
- Applied creative and technical problem-solving to achieve a consistent cinematic look across multiple environments and production stages.
- This project was created for creative, educational, and portfolio purposes as an unofficial fan-made concept.
